“A Soul for Europe”, together with the Allianz Kulturstiftung and the European Parliament, cordially invite you to attend this year’s A Soul for Europe Conference on 8 and 9 November 2016 in Berlin. Bearing the title Cultural Identities on the Move, the conference will react to the current European challenges in a creative way and draft proposals for intensified cooperation between politics and civil society in the cities and regions of Europe. The central conference event on 9 November will provide opportunities for a direct, open and simultaneously constructive discussion between personalities from the fields of politics and culture, additionally enabling constructive participation from the audience. On 8 November, our main focus will be European cities and regions and their new responsibilities facing refugees’ movements and newly erected border fences. Workshops and debates will discuss strategical attempts, while a marketplace will give a practical insight into ongoing projects.

The A Soul for Europe Conference will be followed by the annual The State of Europe speech on the evening of 9 November, held this year by European Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker at the invitation of Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung, Schwarzkopf Stiftung and Stiftung Zukunft Berlin. Please note that invitations will be sent out by Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung and that you must register your interest by 7 October via our online registration form.

Further information and a constantly updated programme can be found on our website at asoulforeurope.eu/asfe16. The conference languages are German and English, and simultaneous translation will be provided.

If you wish to participate in this conference, please fill in the online registration form. On our website, you will also find a list of hotels that provide accommodation at reasonable prices for conference guests.
